Gov. Cornwell Issues Proclamation Forbidding Unlawful Assembling.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Oct. 31—Proclamation was issued last night by Governor John J. Cornwell stating that arms and ammunition are being accumulated in the coal fields of the state, and meetings being held and others planned for the purpose of mobilizing a force of armed men to invade other sections of the state, and setting forth his intention to regard such an assembly as an insurrection.

vade other sections of the state, and such an assembly as an insurrection.

The governor further emphasizes that he will not hesitate to use to the utmost degree the power vested in him to handle any emergency.

The precismation of the governor reads:

"Whereas, sufficient and satisfactory information has be no obtained by me of the accumulation, in large quantities, of arms and ammunition by certain persons in the coal fields adjacent to the Kanawha Valley, and "Whereas meetings have been held and others have been planned for the purpose of mobilizing a force or armed men to invade other sections of the state, and "Whereas, following the march of "Whereas, following the march of whereas, following the march of several hundred armed men in the sarry part of September from the Kapawina field to Coal River, public notice was given by me that any similar expedition would be regarded as an antempt at insurrection and dealt with the such.

as such.

"Therefore, all persons are hereby twartied against assembling at any place or places for any unlawful purpose and against participating in any similar expedition, and any violation of the statues problibiling unlawful as semblies will be dealt with promptly and vigorously with whatever force may be necessary.

"While I shall endeavor to preserve inviolate the right of the people to our guarantee."

shi for the common core as a series of prevances. I shall view as a memace to the lives, the liberates and the property of the clizers of the state of West Virginia, the uprising and assembly for any purpose of a body of armed men, not under the direct control of the proper airbority of the United States of America or of this state, and will deal with them accordingly.
